

DUES REFUND POLICY

Following receipt of a member's state dues and/or fees by TASO, the refund policy of TASO state dues and/or fees is as follows:

1. If the renewing member requests a refund of state dues after receipt of the member's state dues by TASO and prior to the earliest UIL scrimmage date for that sport regardless of whether such scrimmages are boys' or girls' scrimmages, for any reason, including job relocation, family obligations, medical issues, etc., 50% of the state dues are refunded to the member.
2. If the renewing member's state dues include a late fee and/or a continuing education fee, the late fee and/or continuing education fee and 50% of the state dues are refunded to the member if the request is received prior to the earliest UIL scrimmage date for that sport regardless of whether such scrimmages are boys' or girls' scrimmages.
3. If the new member requests a refund of the application fee after receipt of the member's applications fee by TASO for any reason, including job relocation, family obligations, medical issues, etc., no portion of the application fee is refunded to the member.
4. If the new member's application fee includes continuing education fees, the continuing education fees are refunded 100% if the request is received prior to the earliest UIL scrimmage date for that sport regardless of whether such scrimmages are boys' or girls' scrimmages.
5. If a new or renewing member requests a refund of state dues and/or fees after receipt by TASO and after the earliest UIL scrimmage date for that sport, regardless of whether such scrimmages are boys' or girls' scrimmages, no portion of the state dues and/or fees are refunded to the member.
6. If a new or renewing member is a member of the armed forces and is deployed outside of the State of Texas, the new member's application fees or renewing member's state dues and continuing education fees will be refunded in full. Specific requests for refunds under this section may be reviewed individually and supporting documentation is required
7. If a renewing member's application for membership is not approved by the Membership Review Committee, state dues and fees will be refunded. If the rejection is based on an incident that the member failed to disclose as outlined in the TASO By-Laws, there will be no refund.
8. A Transaction fee may be withheld on any refund.
9. State dues and fees may not be transferred to another sport or a future season unless approved by the Executive Director or designee.
10. All requests for a refund of state dues and fees must be submitted to the TASO office by the TASO member seeking a refund in the manner prescribed by the TASO Executive Director or designee.
11. Special or emergency requests may be determined by the Executive Director or designee.
12. Once a member has received his/her state dues/fees refund for a sport, the member acknowledges that all rights and privileges associated with TASO membership in that sport are waived including coverage by any and all TASO insurance policies
